

Favorite Book Lesson Plan- Third Grade

Overview: The purpose of this lesson plan is for each student in a class of third graders to pick a book that is their favorite from a preapproved section in the school library. They will become very familiar with the book and be able to explain why they picked it as their favorite book.

Objective: After this lesson the students will have told the teacher what the book is about and why it is their favorite book. The teacher will then post the feedback from the students about the books on a webpage created from Sauropol.com. The students will then be able to get on the webpage with the parents to see what each student said about their favorite books. The students will have one day to pick a book, three days to read the book, and one day to tell the teacher what to post on the website about their book.

Standards: Standard 1- Reading: word recognition, fluency, and vocabulary development
Standard 2- Reading: comprehension
Standard 3- Reading: literary response and analysis
Standard 7- Listening and Speaking: skills, strategies, applications

The following materials will be needed to complete this lesson by the teacher:

4. A webpage on Sauropol.com that you have created
The following materials will be needed to complete this lesson by the students:

1. Access to a library
2. A book
3. Paper
4. Pencil
5. Internet access and a parent at home to help them if they want to view the website later

Procedures: 1. Start the lesson by explaining to the class that they each will be picking their favorite book out of a section in the library to help you create a website about all of the books.
2. Take the students to library, and tell them to choose one book from the section.
3. Have the students read the book for the following three days during class time.
4. After the students have finished reading the books, ask each one to explain what their book was about and why they picked it as their favorite book.
5. Post the book summaries on the webpage you have created on Sauropol.com for the class to review later.
6. Give the students participation points based on the book reviews they have given you.
