

Revolutionary War Lesson Plan

Fifth Grade

Overview	After completing this activity students will be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1) Recognize and explain main Revolutionary War important human figures.2) Recognize and explain main events during the Revolutionary War.
Objective	Students will be able to listen and obtain knowledge about the Revolutionary War through teacher instruction, with the use of a slide show through Presentit.
Standers	History 5.1: Students will describe the historical movements that influenced the development of the United States from pre-Columbian times up to 1800, with an emphasis on the American Revolution and the founding of the United States.
Materials	Students will need: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1) Writing utensil2) Paper Teacher will need: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1) Access to a computer with internet2) A projector attached to the computer
Procedure	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Students will be seated in their desks• Teacher will upload the Presentit Slideshow presentation• The teacher will explain each slide and picture in detail and chronological order• Will have discussion and analysis with students, making sure every student participates.• After the slideshow students will form into groups• They will discuss with one another their notes and interesting facts• A time period will be given to the students to study• Students will be giving a matching quiz on the events and people of the Revolutionary War.
Evaluation	The students will take a matching quiz to show they have obtained the necessary knowledge to recognize and explain both important human figures and events in the Revolutionary War. This should be done with at least 85% accuracy.

