

RESEARCHING 2.0

Grade Level: Post Secondary

Overview	Students will create a Toodledo account and add their teacher as a collaborator so as they work on their paper they can upload what they have done and their teacher can make sure they are keeping up and give help them improve their paper.
Objective	The objective is to help students learn to write a high quality paper and allow them to get more feedback from their teacher. They will go through the entire writing process from prewriting to the final project.
Standards	Standard 2b- Design and Develop Digital-Age Learning Experiences and Assessments, develop technology-enriched learning environments that enable all students to pursue their individual curiosities and become active participants in setting their own educational goals, managing their own learning, and assessing their own progress
Material	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A Toodledo account • Access to a computer with internet • Research materials including books and internet articles and sites • Research topics • Accessibility to a library with appropriate research books
Procedure	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Explain the research process to the students in a lecture 2. Help the students pick appropriate topics 3. Take them to a computer lab and help them set up a Toodledo account and add you and other classmates as collaborators 4. Take them to a library and let them begin the research process 5. Instruct them to do some prewriting and rough drafts of their papers 6. Have them post them to their Toodledo account so you can see what they have done at that point and so on 7. Have a lecture on how to properly create a Works' Cited page and how to quote their sources in their paper. 8. When you are nearing the due date have them peer evaluate each other and make a checklist for them on Toodledo so they know what to look for
Evaluation	Their evaluation will be turning in their completed research paper for a grade. If a lot of people make the same mistakes maybe an additional lecture could be given to help them again.