Overview:
In this lesson plan students will read and learn about common errors in sentence structuring and grammar. The students will be asked to look at several examples of what are incorrect uses of punctuation and phrasing. Also the students will then learn how to properly fix these problems.

Objective
Students will be able to edit a series of comics for grammatical or structural errors. Showing apt understanding of common and obscure grammar and structuring issues.

Materials Needed:
- Computer lab for work
- Email address to send for evaluation, or printer.
- Grammar book for reading related text

Standards
- 9.6.1 - Grammar and Mechanics of Writing: Identify and correctly use clauses, both main and subordinate; phrases, including gerund, infinitive, and participial; and the mechanics of punctuation, such as semicolons, colons, ellipses, and hyphens.
- 9.6.2 - Demonstrate an understanding of sentence construction, including parallel structure, subordination, and the proper placement of modifiers, and proper English usage, including the use of consistent verb tenses.

Prior Knowledge
How to use basic Pixton procedures to create a coherent comic.

Assessment:
1. The teacher will assign pre-created comics that have standard ranging grammar and sentence issues that the students should familiarize with from the reading.
2. The students will be asked to fix the errors and print or email back in for grading.
Evaluation

After the assignment and reading, students will be able to spot and correct grammar issues and sentence structures. Points will be given based on the number of correctly fixed errors.

- 10 points for all fixed errors
- 8 points for 1-3 missed errors
- 6 points for 4-7 missed errors
- 4 points for 8-10 missed errors
- 2 points for attempting to fix errors
- 0 points for not doing the assignment