

Architecture

Grade Level: Post Secondary

Overview	Students will research a type of architecture and present a presentation to the class. They will use vi.sualize.us to bookmark many images for their presentation and then narrow it down to a select few for the presentation.
Objectives	Upon the completion of this lesson, the student will: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Understand the different types of architecture.
Materials	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. PowerPoint Presentation2. Computers
Procedures	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. What is architecture?2. What are the different types of architecture?3. After the introduction of the this students will go out and research one type of architecture.4. Class sessions will still give brief introductions on the different types.
Evaluation	Students will develop a PowerPoint presentation to present to the class with an in-depth look at a type of architecture.