Secondary Education Lesson
Government and Bing

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Overview:</th>
<th>This lesson involves writing a short description of a reliable news article pertinent to the current political climate. Students will be required to write a three paragraph review of an article found on the internet using Bing.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Standards: | USG 5.12
USG 4
USG 5.9
USG 5.11 |
| Objectives: | Students will be able to use Bing to search current events articles pertaining to the government. USG 5.12
Students will be able to discern reliable news articles from gossip news using Bing. USG 4
Students will be able to find news articles and write a three paragraph review of that article which includes synopsis, relation to current events, and the student’s opinion of the article. USG 5.9, USG 5.11 |
| Materials: | Computer
Internet
Paper |
| Procedure: | 1. Students will work individually on this assignment
2. Have students open up Bing website and explore the homepage.
3. Direct students to “News” feature of Bing that discerns news articles from normal internet sites.
4. Students will decide which current events topic they want to research, and type it into the Bing search toolbar.
5. When they have found the article, they will write a three paragraph review which includes brief synopsis, relation to current events, and student’s opinion on the article (biases, pertinence) |
| Evaluation: | Paragraph review (25 points) |