

Post Secondary

American Revolution

Overview:

Professor will upload a History assignment that requires the students to write a 4 page research paper to TwitDoc. Students will access the rubric and guidelines for the paper via TwitDoc.

Objective:

Students will write a research paper about which event in history lead to the American Revolution, and from there they will upload it via TwitDoc to be graded.

Material:

- Tweeter account/TwitDoc
- Microsoft Word
- Computer
- Research books

Procedure:

1. Students will access TwitDoc to look up the guidelines and rubric for the paper.
2. They will write a 4 page paper about which event in history lead to the American Revolution using research books and internet.
3. Students will upload paper via TwitDoc.
4. The graded file will be re-uploaded to TwitDoc and will be available for students to have the opportunity to fix any problems with their papers.
5. The fixed paper will then be re-uploaded to TwitDoc for the final grade.

Evaluation:

Students will be graded on their original paper and the revisions (if any were made) they made via TwitDoc.
