| Required materials | • Wavosaur application
                   • Understanding of Wavosaur
                   • Hand out of the prepositions
                   • CD uploaded with lyrics and rhythm |
| Procedures | In order to get kids to remember the prepositions, I teach them the Preposition Song. Music is a great way to get an idea in a child's head.
1. First have a CD that is already uploaded on Wavosaur. Then play it through one time so then can hear the tune and the rhythm that they are suppose to sing it like.
2. Then hand out a worksheet that has the lyrics/ prepositions on it.
3. Allow the student to read through it once
4. Then play the first part of the stanza of the song (see lyrics below)
5. Then take each stanza in the song. Sing it with them the first time through with the lyrics still playing on Wavosaur. Do this all the way through with each letter.
6. Then take the lyrics off and see if the students can sing along so that they memorize it.
7. Repeat the steps as many times as it takes for maximum retention |
