

World Literature Wordpress.com 10th Grade Intro to Great Works
Overview	Students will select one book from the independent reading list and create a biographical sketch about the author, a character synopsis and relate it to pop culture, sitting ways this particular story has been influential in other artistic works (paintings, plays, movies, musicals, poems, other books) They will be asked to blog about different aspects of the book and the way it compares to the work that was influenced by it. Using a blog they will be able to see other blogs by students in their class. Students will also be able to comment on other blogs.
Objectives	Students will be able to clearly articulate how classical works have influenced modern popular culture works, they will be able to compare and contrast stylistic, as well as methodical differences within the works.
Key Points	Comparing and critiquing classical literature in pop culture. Blogging coherently about subject matter in an effort to educate their peers on a specific piece of literature they may not have been introduced to. Appropriately evaluating and commenting on an individual's work and learning about particular pieces of literature.
Materials	~Class room books ~ computers with internet connection ~Registration to Wordpress.com for each student
Procedure	Have students read book and research the book and the influence it has had. Have them blog about Themes, characters, setting, plot, and the way the book has impacted future works. Once they have finished with their blogs, have the students comment on other student's blogs. As well as responding to comments on their own blog.
Evaluation	Students will be graded based on the quality of work on their blog, their responses to other students work, as well as the feedback they give for questions on their blog, they will also be evaluated on changes made based on student suggestions.
