<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Budgeting Lesson Plan for Industry/Business</th>
<th>Deals On Wheels</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Overview</td>
<td>In this project students will learn about budgets, car purchasing, and using credit. They will calculate monthly car payments including tax and license fees, vehicle trade-in and down payments.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Objectives</td>
<td>For students to learn about real life financing using spreadsheets and the internet</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| Materials | Teachers materials:
| | - Deals on Wheels Lesson Plan
| | - Outcomes/Products Assessments and Standards Matrix
| | - Calculating Amount to Be Financed/Borrowed
| | - Calculating Amount to Be Financed/Borrowed Sample Teacher Overhead
| | - Calculating Amount of Monthly Payment, Total Finance Charge and Total Cost of Loan
| | - Calculating Amount of Monthly Payment, Total Finance Charge and Total Cost of Loan Answer Key
| | - Budget and Pie Chart Rubric
| | - Budget Essay Rubric
| | Student Materials:
| | - Calculating Amount to Be Financed/Borrowed Student Copy
| | - Calculating Amount of Monthly Payment, Total Finance Charge and Total Cost of Loan
| | - Creating a Budget Worksheet
| | - Budget and Pie Chart Rubric
| | - Budget Essay Rubric
| | Classroom Materials:
| | - Spreadsheet program (Google Sheets)
| | - Internet Access/Computer/printer for students |
| Procedures | Step 1: Teacher will enter the room and announce to students they will be learning how to budget.
| | Step 2: The teacher and the students will either go to a computer lab or use classroom computers to begin assignment.
| | Step 3: The teacher will hand out each worksheet and explain how to complete each
| | Step 4: Students will begin searching the internet for the choice vehicle and complete an appropriate corresponding spreadsheet as well as the provided worksheets. Step 4: Work not completed in the classroom will be expected to be completed at home and will be due two days after the assignment was begun |
| Evaluation | Students will complete the worksheet and a spreadsheet of their data due two days after beginning the assignment. It is expected they will all turn in the assignment and receive full credit for participation and completion. |