

Title	Can You Watch TV in German?
Level	College
Students	German courses of all levels
Materials	Computer with Internet access
Purpose	To give students the experience of what it would be like to watch a show in German. They will be able to hear the speakers' accents as well as the pace in which they speak.
Objectives	Depending on the course level, students will watch various talk shows and be able to summarize or answer questions about the show.
Activities	Students will go to Ustream.tv to watch TV Tutor, a German talk show. After watching the show, the students will write up a summary of the show in English or German (depending on the course level). The instructor may also provide the students with specific questions to answer about the show.
